

The Committee on Medieval Studies Undergraduate Essay Prize

The Committee on Medieval Studies will award one prize of $250 for the best paper on any topic in Medieval Studies by a student in Harvard College. Students in all concentrations are eligible for consideration.

Applicants should submit the following materials by 5:00 on Friday, 3 May 2019:

1. The student information form (available at the "Undergraduate Program" page of the Medieval Studies Committee website, or from the Program office);
2. two double-sided copies of the paper, including any images or apparatus; and
3. one letter of nomination, normally submitted by the faculty member for whom the paper was written; this letter should be sent to the Medieval Studies Committee office, Barker 120.

Items (1) and (2) may be submitted electronically, in PDF format, to the Medieval Studies Committee (medieval@fas.harvard.edu); alternatively, two copies of all forms may be delivered to the Committee's office, Barker Center 121.

If you have any questions, please contact Sean Gilsdorf by email (gilsdorf@fas.harvard.edu) or phone (617-496-5857).
