

The Harvard University Standing Committee on Medieval Studies

The Committee on Medieval Studies Undergraduate Essay Prize

The Committee on Medieval Studies will award one prize of $250 for the best paper on any topic in Medieval Studies by a student in Harvard College. Students in all concentrations are eligible for consideration.

Applicants should submit the following materials by 5:00 on Friday, 6 May 2022:

1. The student information form (available at the "Undergraduate Program" page of the Medieval Studies Committee website, or from the Program office);
2. two double-sided copies of the paper, including any images or apparatus; and
3. one letter of nomination, normally submitted by the faculty member for whom the paper was written.

All materials should be submitted electronically, in PDF format, to the Director of Undergraduate Studies for Medieval Studies, Sean Gilsdorf (gilsdorf@fas.harvard.edu). Please indicate "2022 Essay Prize" on the email subject line.