(The Thompson Room)

CALL FOR PAPERS

We invite contributions from Harvard College students of papers (fifteen to twenty minutes in length) in any discipline, dealing with any topic in ancient, medieval, and early modern studies. We particularly welcome papers that push against traditional disciplinary and geographical boundaries, exploring themes such as cultural exchange and empire, as well ones that address modern imaginings and appropriations of the deeper past. Please submit the proposal form, along with a short abstract of 100-150 words, to medieval@fas.harvard.edu (subject line: undergraduate paper proposal) by Monday, 31 March 2025. A final list of participants, along with panel assignments, will be announced by Monday, 7 April. Visit <https://medieval.fas.harvard.edu/undergraduate-symposium> for the proposal form and more information.
